From Earth To Oblivion 342620

From Earth To Oblivion is an excellent reference book on the subject of the causes and ramifications of overpopulation. Dr. Ross Goodrich does a great job of documenting, discussing and explaining the many facets of this complicated subject. The only reason I did not give the book a 5 star rating is because many people won't read it due its ...

Oblivion (also called the Void of Oblivion, the Planes of Oblivion, and Waters of Oblivion), is a collective term used to describe one subset of the planes of existence, inhabited by the Daedra. Oblivion is the portion of the Aurbis mostly created by the Daedric Princes, those et'ada who did not wish to take part in the creation of Mundus, and is frequently used synonymously with the planes of ...

Oblivion (Realm) | Elder Scrolls | Fandom

Oblivion was an entity born from Kyle Rayner's anger. When Kyle's girlfriend Alex DeWitt got murdered, Kyle unconsciously expelled all his feelings of rage from himself, which took form as Oblivion, a being of energy that eventually manifested itself in the form of one of Kyle's childhood nightmares.

Oblivion II (New Earth) | DC Database | Fandom

Oblivion was unknowingly formed by Kyle Rayner after he broke through the Source Wall and edited the Source itself. Oblivion consists of Rayner's anxiety, greed, rage and fear manifested into a physical form. Oblivion believed himself to be Rayner, and took refuge in Rayner's apartment and fooled Carol Ferris into believing he was Rayner until she realized he was a doppelganger.
