Sonnet 60 by William Shakespeare - Don Yorty

Shakespeare's Sonnet 60: Analysis. In this sonnet, Shakespeare describes the cruel effect that time has on our human condition. The poem follows the pattern of three quatrains, each with an alternating rhyming scheme, followed by a rhyming couplet that is typical of Shakespeare's sonnets. Each quatrain presents a self-contained metaphorical description of time's passage in human life, but the ending couplet stands out as a defiant declaration that despite time's "cruel hand," his ...
