If you buy books without paying sales tax on your purchase, and instead give the books away to reviewers and friends or submit them to contests, then you are required to report those giveaways as if they were sales to you at the wholesale price and pay use tax on each book. Use tax is the equivalent to sales tax but applies to items you use.

Sales Tax Basics for Writers - Helen Sedwick

Make sure to collect the correct amount of sales tax when you sell your books, keep a record of transactions, and give the book buyer a receipt that indicated the amount of sales tax they paid. Remit the sales tax collected to the appropriate tax authority on a timely basis. For example, some states require businesses to remit taxes quarterly.
