Walker has worked in film before - his first short, The Lost Explorer, premiered in 2010 - yet he downplays the cinematic quality of his work: "films are story-led, whereas photographs are mood-led; they're completely different careers really." Yet the evidence on display at Storyteller contradicts

Tim Walker: Story Teller. When one of the most visually exciting photographers of our times turns fashion stories into fairytales the results are unmistakable and inimitable. Extravagant in scale and ambition and instantly recognisable for their eye-opening originality, Walker's photographs dazzle with life, colour and humour.
